HIS SPEECH ONLY PARTIALLY DE. LIVERED BAFORE ADJOURNMENT,

The Senate Honors the Memory of Ex. Speaker Crisp-Immigration Bill to Be Called Up Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25,-The condition of affairs in connection with the choice of a senator from the State of Delaware was called to the attention of the Senate te-day by Burrows (Rep. of Michigan), who presented a paper signed by the three presidential electors for that State, in which it is asserted that through illegal and traudment action a majority of about 500 Republican votes in Kent county had been changed into a Democratic majority of about 200. Mr. Burrows also presented a paper signed by the Speaker of the nate and the Speaker of the House Senate and the Speaker of the House, asserting that legislators chosen by the people were evicted from the State Capa-toi, and that the powers of the State government were usurped by a corrupt oliganchy. Both papers urge the Senate to take action in the premises. In connection with the same subject, Mr. Chandler (Rep. of New Hampshire) announced his intention to suggest to the Senate whether some method cannot be fixed "to prevent wholesale larceny or senatorships in various States PACIFIC RAILROADS.

MR. TURPIE SPEAKS.

In pursuance of previous notice, Mr. Turpic (Dera, of Indiama) addressed the Senate in a long constitutional argument to prove that the primary and paramount power to recognize a new State is vested not in the President of the United States, but in Congress, under that clause of the Constitution which declares that Congress constitution which commerces shall have power to regulate commerce that is, according to Mr. Turple intercourse with foreign States. He spoke for two hours and a half, and had not concluded when the hour fixed for culories on ex-Speaker Crisp, of Georgia, arrived. In the course of his speech he indulged in vituperation of Captain-General Wey-ler as "an indescribably diminutive repler as "an indescribably diminutive rep-tile," as "a man who used his sword against women and children," and who met his enemy with paper pellets and pro-clamations. Mr. Turple favored an im-mediate declaration of belligerency which was to be followed, he said, by the which was to be followed, he are reprisals and the appearance of privateers "militia of the seas"—that would sweep Spanish commerce from the ocean, and would close the market to Spanish bonds and se-Turple will continue his speech to-

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The police stumbled Sunday upon a story of alleged forgery and doutle dealing, the participants in which assert that they are men of present or prospective wealth, aithough residents of a Bowery lodging-house. Col. Silas C. Faylor, late of the United States Army, residing at Believue lodging-house, on the Bowery, is the complainant, and the prisoner is Charles W. Sherwood, who calls himself Charles W. It appears that Col. Taylor owns a placer mine at Snake River, Idaho, which he values at $50,000. One of the most interested listeners to the Colonel's story last December was Charles W. Sherwood, then a lodger at the Bellevue, where the Colonel was stopping.

Sherwood told the Colonel of his sister, Mrs. Mary A. Wright, who lives in splender at New Rochelle, and of his own son, owner of the McGibbon Lithograph Company, near New Haven, Conn. He claimed to be worth half a million dellars in his own right. According to Col. Taylor, Sherwood purchased an interest in his mine. No sooner had the terms of the sale been agreed upon than Sherwood drew a check on the Fourth National Bank for the sum of $10,000 to the order of Col. Taylor. He signed the check with the name of Charles W. Sherman.

Taylor dropped into the bank and presented his check to the paying teller. The teller looked at the check for $10,000 and then at the name signed to the paper. "We are sorry to say," the bank official responded, "but Mr. Sherman has no account with us." Sherman was arrested.

Suicide of an Attorney.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25.—With a rusty old revolver in one hand and a mirror in the other, that his aim might be true, Joseph I. Peyton, a patent at-torney, who lived at 513 A street southeast, sent a bullet through his brain yes-terday to end his earthly troubles. For four days the unfortunate man remained me because of his physical cor at his home because of his physical condition, and each day grew more despondent. Yesterday he sought the seclusion of his own room, and there decided to no longer endure his suffering. The dark and foreboding clouds without were not conductive to cheerfulness, and perhaps served to hasten the act that had been in contemplation for some time.

About 11 o'clock in the morning a shot was heard by members of the household, but thinking the sound came from the street they paid no attention to it at the time. Half an hour later a sister of Peyton had occasion to go upstairs, and as she passed the room cocupied by the patent attorney she heard him breathing heavily. Then she thought of the shot that had been heard, and in a moment was in the room. Lying upon the bed she beheld her brother with a bullet hole in his head.
